SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. Since the decree of the Venezuelan Military Junta on 13 May 1950, dissolving the Partido Comunista de Venezuela, many members of the Instituto Cultural Venezolano-Soviético (ICVS) have removed their names from the Institute's membership rolls. ICVS reportedly plan to publish a list of those members who remove their names from the rolls. [REDACTED] not many persons are visiting the ICVS at present. 25X1X
2. Officers of the ICVS have been expressing dissatisfaction with their new quarters on the sixth floor of the Edificio Mijares. The new premises are not considered adequate for film projection as the ceilings are low and the visibility of the screen is not good. Membership dues are received irregularly and are not sufficient to pay the rent on the premises which reportedly exceeds Bs. 1500 monthly. Dr. Julio Cesar Marin, President of ICVS, often contributes from his own funds to aid in paying the rent.
